OVERCOMING THE SCHOOL TRAUMA CYCLE

Academic and Emotional Supports for Struggling Learners

Trynia Kaufman

When students struggle with learning, it can be stressful for both them and their teachers. Struggling learners are more likely to experience low self-esteem, anxiety, depression, and behavioral issues—challenges that, combined with highly stressful learning experiences, can tip students into a trauma response that makes learning even harder. Overcoming the School Trauma Cycle explores the science behind how learning occurs in the brain, how it can be disrupted, and how to overcome the painful cycle of academic challenges and emotional distress.
