

CONTENTS

Foreword / xiii

Preface / xvii

Acknowledgments / xxii

PART I: Doing Sociology

CHAPTER 1 Seeing Society / 3

Decision Case: “Separate but Safer” / 3

A director of a social service agency that helps juvenile delinquents challenges a local school board’s policy of separate lunchrooms and recess areas for boys and girls.

Actors and Issues / 9

The Sociological “Eye” / 11

Social Relationships / 12

Groups / 18

Networks / 26

Organizations / 33

SOCIOLOGICAL EYE ANALYSIS GUIDE / 39

Decision Case: “Why Can’t Things
Stay as They Are?” / 44

The principal of an elementary school encounters resistance from teachers to school reforms designed to involve students actively in learning and prepare them to be critical thinkers.

CHAPTER 2 Using Theory / 53

Decision Case: “The Towering Dilemma” / 53

A park superintendent has to decide how to resolve conflicts between rock climbers, Native Americans, and naturalists over the use of Devils Tower.

Review: Social Connections / 61

Sociological Theory / 63

Social Connections as Bonds / 66

Social Connections as Integrators / 71

Social Connections as Conflictive Tugs-of-War / 75

Social Connections as Exchanges

Among Rational Actors / 79

Social Connections as Webs of Interaction / 83

SOCIOLOGICAL EYE ANALYSIS GUIDE / 88

Decision Case: “Changing a Hospital’s Culture” / 92

The executive director of a large hospital implements a controversial guest relations program as part of his plan to solve the hospital’s financial problems.

CHAPTER 3 Decoding Culture / 101

Decision Case: “Perfection or Bust!” / 101

The founder and owner of a successful commercial art studio wonders why his business did not turn out exactly the way he intended.

Review: Sociological Theories / 105

Culture / 107

Theories of Culture / 117

Culture as a Social Glue / 119

Culture as an Umbrella / 120

Culture as a Mask / 122

Culture as a Current / 124

Culture as a Tool Kit / 126

SOCIOLOGICAL EYE ANALYSIS GUIDE / 129

Decision Case: “Linda Gorman” / 133

A public health nurse debates what to do after learning that the mother of her Laotian patient has used a traditional cure that could be considered child abuse.

CHAPTER 4 Uncovering Inequalities and Power / 139

Decision Case: “The MPA Program at Southeastern State University: The Price of Admission” / 139

The decision by the director of a master’s of public administration program not to admit a mediocre student whose father is a wealthy alumnus is questioned by a higher-level university administrator.

Review: Social Connections and Interests / 145

Power and Social Inequalities / 148

Social Class / 149

Race and Ethnicity / 153

Sex and Gender / 159

Theories of Inequality / 166

SOCIOLOGICAL EYE ANALYSIS GUIDE / 181

Decision Case: “Robert Lopez” / 189

A teaching assistant for minority scholarship students confronts two students who exhibit racist behaviors in class.

CHAPTER 5 Imagining Futures / 195

Decision Case: “Where Have All the Salmon Gone?” / 195

A father tells his son that the family has to quit commercial fishing because of declining salmon populations.

Review: Social Connections and Change / 199

Constructing Scenarios / 201

Demographic Forces / 204

Technological Forces / 214

Collective Actions and Social Movements / 225

SOCIOLOGICAL EYE ANALYSIS GUIDE / 233

Decision Case: “Deaf President Now!” / 239

Students at a liberal arts college for deaf students challenge the board of trustees’ decision to appoint a hearing woman as the university’s next president.

PART II: Decision Cases

CASE 1 The Worth of a Sparrow / 245

The chairperson of a plant pathology department wonders how he will resolve a conflict with animal rights activists over the university’s killing of birds in order to protect its experimental grain fields.

CASE 2 Conflict at Riverside / 257

A senior manager at an engineering company debates with his brother-in-law, a trade union activist at the same company, about a proposed major redesign of the Riverside plant.

CASE 3 Tossin’ and Turnin’ / 261

A counselor at a day camp for special needs children contemplates what to do when one of her campers indicates that there are problems at home.

CASE 4 Lucy Allman / 267

A family nurse practitioner considers how to deal with a poor family whose daughter has an ear infection and is anemic.

CASE 5 In the Eye of the Beholder: The Case of the Minnetonka Lawn Ordinance / 273

A city council member has to decide how to vote on a new lawn ordinance after a resident with a natural wildlife yard challenges the city's original ordinance.

CASE 6 Off to College / 279

Four high school friends go off to college together and find themselves debating whether they should go to a bar.

CASE 7 What's So Scary About the Truth? / 285

A high school journalism teacher is forced to decide whether to allow publication in a student magazine of an article reporting the results of a student survey on sexual activity among high school students.

CASE 8 People Like You / 293

A single-parent dad on welfare moves in with his older sister and tries to find work. But financial problems in his sister's family, combined with changes in welfare policy, create new problems for him.

CASE 9 Lisa's Hidden Identity / 299

A first-year college student who is a lesbian does not know what to do after she goes out on a date and discovers that continuing the relationship could put her in jeopardy.

Glossary / 305

References / 315

Index / 321